TO BE PROVIDED
BY CITY TODAY

Church, School and Other Organizations to Give Many Poor People Thanksgiving Dinners.

UNION SERVICES TO FEATURE
RELIGIOUS ACTIVITIES OF DAY

Schools and Business Houses to Close While Workers and Students Spend Day at Home.

America, at least the United States, will follow the example of Pilgrim fathers today in the celebration of Thanksgiving day, the last Thursday in November, proclaimed by the president as a day of thanks for blessings of a year past. The year 1620 saw the first Thanksgiving, when, "on a bleak and rock-bound coast" a mere handful of Pilgrims into a new land gathered to celebrate a bountiful harvest and the finding of relief from oppression of a mother country.

South Bend will do its share in the commemorating of this feast day in American history with the shutting down of business and the gathering of families for a holiday spread. With South Bend's celebration will be featured a looking after the needy of the city by various organizations. Plans for the observance of Thanksgiving day have been considered for weeks past and the old-time spirit of the occasion will be far from forgotten.

Union Services in Churches.
Union services will be held at five churches Thursday evening at 7:30 o'clock, pastors from other churches filling the pulpits. Following are the pastors who will speak at the various union services: Rev. C. A. Decker of the First Baptist church, at the First Presbyterian; Rev. H. B. Hostetter of Westminster Presbyterian, at Epworth Memorial; Rev. E. W. H. Freshley of the First Church of the Evangelical association at Grace M. E.; Rev. A. E. Thomas of the First Brethren, at Hope chapel; Rev. H. L. Davis at Trinity Presbyterian.

Seniors Host to Poor.
One of the feature events of Thanksgiving day is the dinner for needy school children to be given at the high school Thursday noon when members of the senior class will act as hosts under the direction of their sponsors, Prof. Shepherd Loeffler and the Misses Katherine Klingel and Mary Livensood.

This is the third annual Thanksgiving dinner to be served under the direction of a high school senior class, and has been contributed to by all students of the high school. A total of $60 was raised in cash amongst students and faculty, while many scholars from the rural communities tendered garden produce, potatoes, apples, etc., for the preparation.

The work of waiting table, providing entertainment after the dinner, and cleaning up will be done by the senior class, which has been divided into committees for the work. Tickets for the affair, which will be given in the lunch room at the high school, were sent out to principals of all South Bend's schools, and given to those to whom it was deemed such an entertainment would be most appropriate.

Schools Given Holiday.
As usual with Thanksgiving, a holiday for students and teachers has been arranged, and school closed Wednesday, to be resumed Monday morning. Exercises at the different grade institutions have been in progress for the past week, with different schools choosing different times for the celebration of Thanksgiving. Wednesday afternoon saw the last of the entertainments. Kaley school was hosts to parents and friends of the students Wednesday at a well prepared program in the assembly hall.

Dinners For Poor.
Both the Salvation Army and the City Rescue Mission announce Thanksgiving dinners for Thursday. At the Rescue Mission plans are being made to care for all needy ones of the city who apply and for many who have been invited. Services will be held at 11 o'clock in the morning, following which a substantial spread will be tendered all. Assurance is given that no one will go away hungry.

Capt. and Mrs. W. B. Thompson of the Salvation Army Industrial home announce a dinner at 1 o'clock for men of the home, and have made plans for a bountiful feast. In the evening at 7:30, an entertainment will be provided for men of the home and lodgers. Capt. Thompson will address the gathering. Coffee and cake and other refreshments will be served at the conclusion of services.

Regarding the home and its members, Capt. Thompson stated that not in 14 years has he found so many old men applying to the army for aid. "We have 10 men here," he

South Bend Man
Fights off Three
Bears With Club

ST. PAUL, Minn., Nov. 24.—With a knotted pine club as his only defense, Milo Guernsey of South Bend, Ind., fought off three bear cubs who attacked him after he had shot and fatally injured their mother.

According to the story which he told in Minneapolis last night, Guernsey, with a party of four, was hunting deer in the north woods in Wisconsin. The mother bear, with the three cubs, came to the tent where the supplies were kept and instigated a raid on the larder. Guernsey pursued them into the woods and after shooting the mother bear rested his rifle against a tree while he went up to view his victim. The three cubs then rushed him and he picked up a pine club with which he beat off their attacks. His clothes were torn and he was severely scratched and bitten.

White Slave Action May Also Be Taken on Detroit
Mau.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Nov. 24.—Charles Gibson, 22, of Detroit, and Mary Minniger, 22, of this city, were arrested Wednesday charged with grand larceny. It is charged that the pair stole furs and other articles from cafes. Detectives say white slave charges may also be preferred against Gibson.

Gibson confessed, the police say, to having robbed the Greek orthodox church of a gold cross, robes and jewels valued at more than $400.

Gibson is wanted in Toledo, O., for the alleged theft of valuable jewelry in that city.

Mary Minniger, the alleged accomplice of Gibson, claims to have married Gibson in Chicago last spring. She formerly lived at Winchester and Richmond, Ind. According to the story told the police, the Minniger woman was married to Merrill Hank at Richmond when she was but 15 years of age. After the birth of a child, she said, her husband deserted her and later obtained a divorce at Muncie. Later, she said she married Charles Minniger, who was drowned in the flood at Hamilton, O. Her child, she said, now lives at the home of her mother, Mrs. Corwin, of Station st., Richmond.

DRY BILL FOR CONGRESS

Sheppard to Push Fight for National Prohibition.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 24.—A constitutional amendment providing for national prohibition is to occupy a place among the important problems that congress will consider during the coming session. Sen. Morris Sheppard of Texas, announced tonight that he would introduce a resolution carrying such an amendment as soon as the session begins.

Sen. Sheppard led a fight for national prohibition in the last congress, but was unable to put his resolution through. He said tonight that he believes the coming session would offer an opportunity for favorable action.

Sen. Sheppard will endeavor also to put through a bill wiping out the saloons in the city of Washington.

PROHIBIT EXPORTATION.

LONDON, Nov. 24.—The exportation of iron ore, cotton wadding and cotton wool from Great Britain has been prohibited. An announcement to this effect appears in the Official Gazette tonight.

CLAIMS MESSAGE
FROM MAN LOST
ON LUSITANIA

American Society of Psychical Research Reports Prof. Friend Talks from Spirit World.

WORD COMES THROUGH MRS.
CELESTINE GLENN, MEDIUM

Says it Will Take Some Time Before He Can Give Full Report of His Investigations.

NEW YORK, Nov. 24.—The American Society for Psychical Research has received the message from Prof. Edwin William Friend, who was lost on the Lusitania. The message came through Mrs. Celestine Glenn, whom members of the society state to be one of the most celebrated mediums in the world. It is now a part of the official records of the organization. It follows: "It will take me some time before I can give you a full report upon my investigations here. I feel that I was a mere youth in the cause upon the earth. But I feel now that since I have had the experience with you upon earth I have been strengthened here. And I feel that I will bring back to you something that will guide you more thoroughly and fully than I would have been able to have imparted otherwise. And I want to know more myself. I am just in my infancy here."

Not Acquainted With Friend.
Mrs. Glenn was not acquainted with Dr. Friend. She was under psychic influence in the presence of Miss Tubby, secretary to Dr. James H. Hislop, when she received the communication. She repeated the message carefully to Miss Tubby, who recorded it in shorthand. . . . Miss Tubby confirmed receipt of the message today. She stated that other messages have also been received from Dr. Friend through Mrs. Glenn, but they were fragmentary. They were sufficient, however, to fully identify the sender.

Prof. Friend was a Fellow at Harvard university. He was not yet 30 years of age. He was bound abroad to continue research into the spirit world when the Lusitania was sunk.

Hislop is Convinced.
Dr. Friend's statement, "I feel that I was a mere youth in the cause upon earth," is interpreted by Dr. Hislop to refer to the fact that he had been connected with the society only a few months at the time of his death. Dr. Hislop is convinced that the messages are genuine.

The first mention of Prof. Friend was made by Mrs. Glenn to Miss Tubby in a wholly unexpected manner. Dr. Hislop's secretary was feeling the medium's powers. She handed to Mrs. Glenn a sealed and blank envelope containing a sheet of paper with the words "What is the name of the medium through whom William T. Stead worked on the blank case?"

Mrs. Glenn began to talk as she does under the "power," as she describes it. Her chief "controls" are stated to be "a tall man with a flowing beard, robed in white and carrying a shepherd's crook," and an "Indian named Joe."

Gives Name of Medium.
Mrs. Glenn gave the name of the required medium correctly. It was one of the staff of Julia's bureau, which Stead established and named after an American woman, Julia A. Ames.

Suddenly she said earnestly to Miss Tubby: "There is some one you must have forgotten. He seems to feel like you have forgotten. He wants to know if you have forgotten."

"No, I haven't forgotten," said Miss Tubby. She did not realize the message was for her, but she wished Mrs. Glenn to continue.

"Well, it seems that way. He wants you to forward something. I think it's a verbal message," went on Mrs. Glenn. Then she said "F—", paused, "F—", "F—". Finally she made an "N" in the air with her finger. Then she said "F—".

Although he struggled hard she could not get the final letter.

Miss Tubby said she recognized the name immediately as being that of Prof. Friend.

HOLD PUBLIC FUNERAL

Bury Victims of Show Train Wreck at Columbus, Ga.

COLUMBUS, Ga., Nov. 24.—A public funeral will be held here tomorrow for the victims of the wrecked Con T. Kennedy show train, all of whom will be buried at Columbus except Fred T. Kempf and wife, whose remains will be sent to their home at Cadillac, Mich.

An inquiry was today held by railroad and show officials and a few private citizens into the cause of the wreck which cost about 12 lives, but it failed to develop anything new.

Answer to Critics of Expenditures

WASHINGTON, Nov. 24.—The Navy league tonight answered its critics by making public its receipts and expenditures up to Nov. 6 last. It has been charged by those opposing preparedness that this organization is financed by "war traffickers" and that its resources are practically inexhaustible. The league's statement showed receipts amounting to $20,826 from contributions and $23,873 from membership and miscellaneous items.

Tavener also declared his willingness to abandon his announced purpose to move for a congressional investigation of the Navy league if the league would favor government manufacture of war munitions exclusively.

In a letter to A. H. Daddum, secretary of the Navy league, and made public by Rep. Tavener, he said: "I notice in your statement of yesterday that you state J. Pierpont Morgan is an American patriot. Evidently you missed my point. I do not charge Mr. Morgan is not an 'American patriot.' I charge that he is a war trafficker, and that he is a director of the Navy league, which is advocating larger appropriations for war traffickers."

"I also note that you state that Mr. Morgan has contributed only $125 to the Navy league. I understood that the J. Pierpont Morgan estate contributed $2,000 on June 1. Will you please inform the public whether this is correct and what individual or individuals made this contribution on behalf of the Morgan estate?"

TRANSFER PUBLIC FUNDS

Shift $7,000,000 Jan. 1 Under New Reserve System.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 24.—Sec'y of the Treasury McAdoo today announced that beginning Jan. 1 he will begin the transfer of public funds from the designated national bank depositories to the federal reserve banks, as authorized under act creating the reserve banks. In order not to inconvenience too many banks at the same time the secretary announces that at first he will only transfer government funds now on deposit in national banks in each of the cities where a reserve bank is located.

This will involve a shifting of $7,000,000.

BUDGET BODY TO MEET

Plan for Systematizing Government Expenditures.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 24.—A meeting of the budget committee of the democratic house caucus was called today to meet next Monday. It is expected that all the members of the committee including Speaker Champ Clark, will be in Washington then and that an actual start can be made on the plan to systematize the governmental expenditures.

Although he struggled hard she could not get the final letter.

Miss Tubby said she recognized the name immediately as being that of Prof. Friend.

GREECE YIELDS
TO DEMANDS OF THE ALLIES

Will Allow Liberty of Action to All Troops Driven Over Border by Entente Enemies.

WILL ALSO ACCORD RAILROAD AND TELEGRAPH FACILITIES

Reports That Roumania Will Throw Lot With the Allies Gains Strength; Action Soon.

LONDON, Nov. 25.—Greece has yielded to the allies. She has agreed, says a Renter dispatch from Athens, not to disarm any forces that are driven over the border by the enemy, to give them liberty of action on Greek territory for their own security, and to accord railway and telegraph facilities. The government makes reserves only regarding a further examination of certain details.

This action follows quickly on the presentation of a joint note by the allies at Athens yesterday, asking simply that Greece assure the safety of the allied troops if they are compelled to retreat into Greek territory from Macedonia.

The cabinet met immediately and then the decision to give such assurances was reported.

Roumania May Join Allies.
Meanwhile, reports that Roumania will throw in her lot with the allies have gained strength. "The Roumanian government is desirous of following the national policy, and soon will intervene in the war on the side of the entente powers," Take Ionescu, leader of the liberal party at Bucharest, is quoted by the Bucharest correspondent of the Geneva Tribune.

M. Jonescu, according to this dispatch, also said he had learned from Petrograd that a strong Russian force was ready near the Roumanian frontier to aid Roumania against Austria and Bulgaria. The Roumanian premier, M. Bratiano, in a conversation regarding the relations between Roumania and Russia, is quoted as saying: "They are better than ever before."

These developments have lent new significance to reports in circulation in Greece that Great Britain and France are preparing for important new efforts in the Balkans.

The "Hestia" of Athens publishes an interview with the Serbian war minister, who said: "The participation of Italy meets with difficulties, owing to the divergence of views regarding Albanian, Russian intervention will be effected after the concentration of the allied armies in the Balkans, and it is expected that this will produce a change in Roumania's attitude."

"I can assure you that France and England are preparing surprises in the Balkans."

Athens, it is reported, expected somewhat surprised by the moderate tone of the allies' note. Reports of an ultimatum have led the capital to believe more stringent demands would be made and the rumor that Greece would be asked to join the allies or demoralize had gained much strength.

But the note was expressed in friendly spirit and was general in character, asking only the confirmation of assurances already given as to the position of the allies' forces on Greek soil and the earliest reply possible under the circumstances.

REP. WITHERSPOON DIES.

PRESIDENT TO BE HOST

Elaborate Plans for Thanksgiving at White House.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 24.—Elaborate preparations have been made for the Thanksgiving dinner at the white house tomorrow as the guests of honor are to be Mrs. Norman Galt, Pres. Wilson's fiancée, and her mother, Mrs. William Bolling. Others present will be Miss Margaret Wilson, Secy. and Mrs. William McAdoo and Miss Bones.

A turkey weighing 25 pounds arrived this morning from Kentucky in a flag-draped crate. It was a present to the president from Clerk South Trimble of the house of representatives.
